

Aerial Data Service, Inc. is seeking an experienced LiDAR Technician in our Tulsa, Oklahoma office. The LiDAR Technician will be responsible for processing LiDAR datasets, QA/QC and the management and delivery of data.

Salary and Benefits:

- Competitive starting salary and compensation package.
- Health/Life insurance provided at no cost to full time employees.
- Medical/Dental insurance benefits
- 401k Retirement Plan available
- Paid vacation / sick / personal time

Functional Responsibilities:

- LiDAR data processing and production
- Calibrate and classify LiDAR data using TerraSolid software
- Work effectively with team on tasks, timeline and production methods
- Meet production schedule deadlines
- Work with photogrammetric team to solve any issues with LiDAR data processing
- Troubleshooting of technical issues
- Assist team in assuring quality control with project deliverables

Preferred Skills and Qualifications:

- Previous related work experience
- Experience in all phases of airborne LiDAR production. Mobile LiDAR experience is a plus.
- Knowledge of all phases of LiDAR calibration, cleaning, and final deliverable generation
- Experience using TerraSolid and MicroStation
- Ability to work well with a team or independently if needed
- Strong communication skills

Job Type: Full-time

Work Location:

- One location

Benefits:

- Health insurance
- Dental insurance
- Retirement plan